▶ BEFORE WE GET STARTED...

This project was supported by Grant #15PJDP-21-GK-04048-MUMU awarded by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

The opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this publication/program/exhibition are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect those of the Department of Justice.

Most often, “Alternatives to Detention” refers to working with youth who are justice involved. Please share ideas of how programs can re-think “Alternatives to Detention” to be inclusive of “prevention” approaches before youth become justice involved.

Please share an example of how your program exemplifies “innovative” approaches in serving justice involved youth.

What do you feel are the biggest challenges that justice involved youth face in your community? Please share a strategy that your program implemented to address the challenges they are trying to work through.
