

OJJDP GRANTEE RESOURCES

Tribal Law and Policy Institute \(TLPI\)

A Native American operated non-profit: Dedicated to providing free publication resources, comprehensive training, and technical assistance for Native nations and tribal justice systems in pursuit of our vision to empower Native communities to create and control their own institutions for the benefit of all community members, now, and for future generations.

Tribal Youth Justice Resource Center \(TYJRC\)

Through the implementation of prevention and diversion programs that embody local values, culture, tradition, and positive youth development strategies, communities are etching new paths for their Indigenous youth. The Tribal Youth Justice Resource Center supports these efforts toward healing, opportunity and changing the narrative for American Indian and Alaska Native Youth.

National Native Children's Trauma Center \(NNCTC\)

As a Category II Treatment and Service Adaptation Center within the National Child Traumatic Stress Network, our focus is on increasing service providers' ability to respond to the trauma-related needs of American Indian/Alaska Native (AI/AN) children and youth.

Rural Alaska Community Action Program, Inc. \(RurAL CAP\)

RurAL CAP is a private, statewide nonprofit program founded in 1965 to improve the quality of life for low-income Alaskans. Governed by a 24-member Board of Directors, they represent every region of the state as one of Alaska's largest and most diverse nonprofits. We believe all Alaskans have the right to maintain their cultural heritage and close connection to the land while protecting their economic and human potential.

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention \(OJJDP\)

The Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974, Public Law 93-415, as amended, established the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) to support local and state efforts to prevent delinquency and improve juvenile justice systems.

A component of the Office of Justice Programs within the U.S. Department of Justice, OJJDP works to prevent and respond to youth delinquency and protect children.

Through its divisions, OJJDP sponsors research, program, and training initiatives; develops priorities and goals and sets policies to guide federal juvenile justice issues; disseminates information about juvenile justice issues; and awards funds to states to support local programming.
